This 25 acre parcel is located near the village of Crystal Ray on the Macal River with over one thousand feet of River Frontage. There are two hills on the property, each of which has a paved road to the top from where fifteen mile panoramic views of the surrounding valleys are seen.

One of the hills has a winding stairway leading down to a platform over looking the surrounding jungle. The property is situated across the River from Chaa Creek Resort, the large resort of the year 2015, and adjacent to Table Rock Resort, the small resort of the year 2015.

There is a storage building and a three bedroom Caretaker House. Municipal water is on the property. Solar power furnishes electricity needs.

The paved road leads from the entrance of the property all the way to the Macal River which is not common because of the steepness of ...
